

Troparion

Ison Let us ex - tol the all - laud - ed bride of Christ, Cath - er - ine, the guard - ian of Si - nai, who is our suc - cour and our sup - port; for by the pow'r of the Spir - it she si - lenced bril - liant - ly the no - bil - i - ty of li - ars. And now that she hath been crowned as a Mar - tyr, she seek - eth for all the Great Mer - cy.

Kontakion
Special Melody: Thou soughtest the heights

Music adapted from Holy Transfiguration Monastery;
Arr. by Christopher Holwey

Ison
Form ye, O lov-ers of Mar - tyrs, a sol-emn rank in a di-vine man - ner, hon - - - our - ing Cath - erine thē all - wise;
for she preached Christ on the bat - tle - field, tram - - - pling the ser - - - pent, rid - i - cūl - ing the knowl-edge of thē el - o - quent.

Andrew the Apostle - Menaion
Troparion - Tone 4

November 30
Basil Kazan

Ison
Since thou wast first called a - mong thē A - pos - tles, and a broth - er of the head, im - plore, O An - drew, the 787 Mas - ter of all, to grant thē in - hab - it - ed world 791 safe - ty and our souls the Great Mer - cy.